Utah State University
COOPERATIVE EXTENSION

Topics:

- As couples, what can we do to make the most of our money?
- How do we work together to achieve greater financial success and not sabotage our financial future?
- How do we get past the differences in money attitudes?
- How are we preparing our children to handle money?

Don't Miss It!
Space is Limited

This class will answer all these, and many more couples and money questions. We will discuss key principles of a healthy money partnership. It is all about helping you work together as a self-empowered TEAM. Yes, we will talk about budgets, but it will be so much more.

Presenters:

Join Teresa Hunsaker, USU Extension Family and Consumer Science Educator, and Ryan Calder, MS, LMFS, for a fun and informative evening.
